Channeled Grace Healing

World Peace Meditation, Mysticism Discussion and Book Signing!

Theresa Joseph

Linda Fallo-Mitchell, Ph.D.

Everyday Mystic: Finding the Extraordinary in the Ordinary authors, Theresa Joseph and Linda Fallo-Mitchell will begin the evening with a combined Meditation for World Peace and Channeled Grace Healing. The guided meditation and healing will be followed by an in-depth talk about mysticism in the 21st century during which Theresa and Linda will help you to discover that inner peace, love and joy—the key ingredients for world peace—are already within you.

You have the power to bring about a more peaceful world! There is power in numbers and the more people we have embodying the vibration of peace, the more quickly we will see a shift in global consciousness. With this in mind Theresa created the Meditation for World Peace. This guided meditation allows those who have never practiced meditation, and those who are experts, to partake in the movement to promote world peace by embodying and simultaneously sending out the vibration of peace and love.

During the meditation Theresa and Linda will channel grace to the group, asking that each of you be healed in accordance with your highest good. The World Peace Meditation and Channeled Grace healing will be followed by an in-depth talk about mysticism in the 21st century, based on their book, Everyday Mystic: Finding the Extraordinary in the Ordinary.

The book is the story of Theresa's unlikely journey from IBM financial executive to everyday mystic—how she began, in the course of her daily life, to see and hear the Divine. Theresa will share some of the messages she received over the years, all of which transcend religious boundaries, have love at their core and will help you to discover that inner peace, love and joy are already within you—if you know where to look.
