

PRESENCE HEALING SESSIONS

I will be holding energy healing sessions based on a number of cutting-edge healing modalities. Each session can be tailored made for you. You may request the type of modality you desire or I can make a recommendation. If you do not see something that resonates, please talk with me to see if there is something else not presented that could help.

Description of Healing Modalities

Arcturian Healing Method is a healing method I have synthesized from all the healing modalities I have studied and also inspired by the Divine and spiritual beings from the star system Arcturus. The purpose of this session is to center and balance any issue expressing itself on the physical, energetic, emotional, mental, or spiritual levels. (1 hour)

Dimensional Analysis and Balancing (DAB) allows the client and myself to look at any issue (illness, person, organ, relationship, business, etc) and energetically diagnose what dimension and specifically up to 12 subdivisions on that dimension that issue needs balancing. The second part of the session then provides energetic and vibrational healing to center and balance those affected dimensions. (1 hour or 2 hour options)

The Reconnection® is best suited for people who want a quantum shift and acceleration forward in their life purpose. If you have never done the Reconnection, this is a place to start since I have found it to be effective for myself and clients in general. Highly recommended. 2 separate sessions, spaced a day apart, are required. (1 hour; 2 sessions)

I have also trained in the following modalities: Access Bars®, VortexHealing®, Divine Energy Healing, Matrix Energetics®, Pranic Healing®, Quantum Healing Hypnosis Therapy®, Reconnective Healing®, and Shamanic Healing.

Pricing:

$250/hr

The Reconnection is $333 both sessions included.

The above healing modalities are not meant to replace conventional medicine and advice from your personal physician. Gene Ang is not a medical doctor and makes no claims, promises or guarantees, and is neither diagnosing nor treating specific health issues or challenges. These modalities should be used in conjunction with regular medical care.

New Healing Offering: Dimensional Analysis and Balancing (DAB)

There is a new healing offering called Dimensional Analysis and Balancing (DAB) which allow the client and myself to look at any issue (illness, person, organ, relationship, business, etc) and energetically diagnose what dimension and specifically which subdivisions on that dimension that issue needs balancing. The second part of the session then provides energetic and vibrational healing to center and balance those affected dimensions.

What are the different dimensions? The dimensions as defined by this system are the physical, etheric, emotional, mental, causal, spiritual, and divine. For example, in this session, we can see if an affected organ needs balancing on one of these dimensions. Its symptoms may be arising on the physical level but the cause is on one of these other dimensions. This energetic diagnosis will allow us to see which dimension emanates the cause.

In addition, this energetic tool will allow a deeper analysis as to the subdivisions that are affected at each dimension. For example, if the emotional dimension is affected, we can further see 12 subdivisions on the emotional plane that could be affected. This fine gradation can help pinpoint the exact level of the cause of the problem. We can look at 3 physical sub-divisions, 9 etheric subdivisions, 12 emotional subdivisions, 12 mental subdivisions, 12 causal subdivisions, and 12 spiritual subdivisions. Overall, 60 subdivisions are analyzed in each work up.

Once we have this assessment, we center and balance those affected areas.

What you can expect out of this session:

- Analysis of 2 major issues or problems including illness, person, organ, relationship, business, and more (1 hour)
- Balancing and centering of those affected dimensions and their affected subdivisions.
- Permanent linkage to balancing elements for those issues or problems. Allows for 24/7 balancing to occur for affected issues.
- In-depth information as to the cause of certain problems. Hard to heal issues will benefit greatly by knowing exactly which dimension the cause emanates from.
- for a more in-depth analysis (4 issues) and more intricate permanent linkage diagram, the suggestion is a 2 hour session.

Cost $250/hr.
