Is there really an afterlife? Have you ever tried to communicate with the beyond? Do you want to get messages from your loved ones?

Messages from our departed loved ones exist because they are a part of the spectrum of energy and love. It is no mystery that when someone passes, our hearts become tattered and broken. If we yield to contemplation and permit an openness to hear the message, our departed loved ones will communicate with us.

What is required to be the best “medium” that you can be is understanding the universal energy that exists in all time and in all space. Join Roland Comtois, renowned Spiritual Medium, Author of “And Then There Was Heaven...A Journey of Hope and Love” and “16 Minutes...When One Breath Ends, Another Begins” and Grief Guide and Spiritual Teacher, for a day-long experience as you step beyond your doubt into the messages themselves.

There is, today, a heightened interest in mediums. Roland, with 40 plus years of experience in receiving, delivering and experiencing messages, Roland brings to you his knowledge, expertise and understanding of mediumship, and so much more. He will teach you how to quiet your mind and receive spiritually charged messages from your loved ones. Roland will guide you through meditations and offer practical step-by-step instructions for spirit to spirit connection.

Along with your day-long retreat and intensive workshop, you will be part of a small, intimate group of no more than 20 other eager student to learn about mediumship. Booklets and handouts will be given along with invitation to be part of Roland’s special “Spiritual Explorer Educational Center” on Facebook page. Lunch, fruits and water will be provided for you.
